Arielle Dameshghi

Bio

With 5 years of experience in publishing, healthcare, and education settings, I have the demonstrated ability to learn quickly and to adeptly leverage my nuanced experience in any role. Dependable, excellent communication and organizational skills, highly adaptable, and incredibly effective at problem solving.

Skills

Web Technologies:

HTML, CSS, JSON

Programming Languages:

JavaScript

Frameworks/Libraries:

Bootstrap

Version Control Tools:

Git

Package Managers:

npm

Methodologies:

Agile, Object Oriented Programming, Functional Programming

Soft Skills:

Time management, Task delegation, Problem solving, Conflict resolution

Experience

Language and Culture Assistant Instructor

Ministerio de Educación | Bailén, Spain

Oct 2019 - Oct 2020

- Adapted customized lesson plans for the classroom in coordination with lead instructor;
- Monitored and assessed students' progress and accordingly selected suitable instructional methods

Editorial Assistant

Wolters Kluwer | Philadelphia, PA

Mar 2018 – Aug 2019

- Handled developmental editing tasks such as review analyses, permissions, and chapter mapping for online course modules;
- Created and maintained ISBNs/product records within proprietary title management software (Firebrand)

Education

Bachelor's in Social Thought and Political Economy

University of Massachusetts Amherst, Feb 2017